

BIRD THE DRY TORTUGAS with FLORIDA NATURE TOURS

Florida Nature Tours specializes in birding tours to the Dry Tortugas, Florida and the Caribbean. We can create customized tours for any size group to these areas and elsewhere in North and Central America and the Caribbean.

If you want to experience one of the most unique birding spots in the world now is the time to book a trip with Florida Nature Tours for the Dry Tortugas. The birding, history and beauty of this special place is extraordinary, and photographic opportunities are absolutely out of this world!

A few spaces on the April 26-29, 2013 tour are still available.

At $1100.00 our Dry Tortugas birding tours are already priced $195.00 less than our lowest priced competitor. Our leaders have the most Florida birding experience, and you will never pay a fuel surcharge.

This special $1100.00 price also includes a free day of birding in the lower Keys before we depart from Key West and the opportunity to sleep aboard the vessel on the evening of our return. Due to a major increase in our costs, next year's prices will surely be significantly increased. This is the year to go & to save big!

Join us for the birding and photographic tour of a lifetime, and at the lowest price you will ever see! Please read about us on our web site, www.floridanaturetours.net or call us at the office, 407-384-9766 or on the cell at 407-376-6967.
